Do you have experience working with gifted individuals? Do you typically work with children, teens, adults, and/or families?

Yes, I have experience working with gifted individuals. I typically work with children and teens, and the adults who care for them.

Do you have a specialty or preferred area of expertise? Do you have additional certifications or training that may be of interest to families with gifted children?

Social and emotional needs of the gifted, self-directed inquiry projects. I was identified as gifted prior to starting kindergarten, participated in selective gifted programming K-8, and am a parent to two boys who were Hi Cap eligible in Seattle Public Schools. Understanding the needs of the gifted is a personal and professional mission, and I am privileged to be able to support families in my role as a psychologist.

Have you worked with twice-exceptional children/teens and their families?

Yes.

Briefly state how your understanding of the needs of gifted/2e individuals and families inform your approach?

I draw primarily from the work of Dabrowsky in this arena. I love to learn about each individuals' strengths, challenges, values, and priorities, and I do not make broad assumptions regarding these attributes.

About NWGCA

The Northwest Gifted Child Association (NWGCA) is a support and advocacy organization for parents of gifted children. Organized in 1963, NWGCA provides support and information to parents of gifted children. It continues to help parents enhance and hone their parenting skills and gives them tools to speak out for an appropriate gifted education and deal with this learning difference we call giftedness. NWGCA works with individual families, talking with them by phone and through emails, providing appropriate referrals and resources through our website. Thank you for completing this application form and for supporting the gifted and talented families of Washington State. Please email completed form to providers@nwgca.org.
